Conduct of Meetings. The Club Committee may appoint one or more additional non-voting officers onto the Club Committee for such purposes as it may deem appropriate.

The Club Committee has the authority to appoint, until the next AGM, members to replace any members who retire from the committee or to fill a vacant post on the Committee.

The Club Committee may form other sub-committees or working groups in order to fulfil an identified need or purpose.

The Club Executive Committee shall meet on a regular basis in order to manage the affairs of the Club effectively and efficiently.

Committee meetings shall be chaired by the Chair, Vice-Chair or a nominated Officer of the Club. Meetings shall be organised by the Club Secretary giving 7 days notice of the agenda, time and location. A meeting shall not take place until at least 5 members of the Committee, of whom at least one must be either the Chairman, Vice-Chairman or Club Secretary, are present. Minutes shall be taken and any actions recorded. Any member present at the meeting may act as recorder. Minutes should be disseminated to attendees and other relevant recipients within 7 days of the meeting.

Sub-Committee Meetings, as they involve fewer people and address narrower issues, may be arranged at the convenience of the Sub-Committee Members but should be timed to be before the Executive Committee, ideally no more than 2 weeks. A summary of the issues discussed, and any decisions reached, shall be recorded and conveyed to the Club Secretary and Chairperson (if he/she has not attended a meeting) and circulated to the members of the Sub-Committee.

The elected Treasurer, Club Secretary and one other Executive Committee Member shall be the signatories for payments made by the Club, of which two of the named shall counter-authorise each and every payment.

The Treasurer in consultation with the Club Committee shall be responsible for recording all financial income and expenditure of the Club and for presenting independently reviewed accounts at each AGM of the Club.

Payments or Benefits

The Club Committee may appoint paid part-time staff for specific activities. Such activities are at the complete discretion of the Club Committee; however they must be for Club related projects. Example appointments include coaching staff for development programmes, leader/umpire qualification course tutors, webmaster etc. Such activities must have a majority vote by the Executive Committee and one of these votes must be the Treasurer.

AGM

An AGM of the Club shall be held in the month of April or May every year. There shall be no more than thirteen months between one AGM and the next.

Notice of the date, time and location of the AGM shall be given to members at least 21 days before the date of such a meeting.

The AGM shall be chaired by the incumbent Chair or his/her nominated replacement if (s)he is unavailable.

An AGM of the Club shall not proceed until at least 20 members of the Club (made up of any combination of Club members and committee members) are present.

Every member of the Club shall be entitled to be present and to vote at any General Meeting of the Club. Voting shall be by simple majority with each member present having one vote only. In the event of a tie on any voting issue the Chair of the meeting shall have the casting vote.

The AGM shall receive reports from Committee members and the accounts for the financial year.

The following subjects shall be decided by a vote at the AGM (or a General Meeting):

- Election of Officers of the Club
- Set membership and match fees
- Any other business accepted by the Chairman.

Where issues of great importance are being voted on, the Chairman of the meeting shall be empowered to request that a majority of two thirds or more of the members present and entitled to vote be required for the motion to be accepted. The Chairman must state that this rule is to be used prior to the vote and there must be prior consent of at least 5 members of the Executive Committee.

All motions to be voted on at any General Meeting must be itemised on the agenda for that meeting. Club members shall be entitled to put forward motions to be voted on at any AGM by informing the Club Secretary in writing, at least 14 days before the General Meeting to allow a reasonable time for Committee discussion and its inclusion on the agenda.

An Extraordinary General Meeting may be called on the same basis as the AGM at any time by the Club Committee or by 10 members making a written request to the Club Chairman.

Minutes of the AGM/Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) shall be recorded and actions noted by the Club Secretary.

Conduct of Members

The Club may suspend the membership of any member whose conduct has been, in the opinion of the Club Disciplinary Committee, contrary to the Club's Code of Ethics & Behaviour or the interests and reputation of the Club.

For the Club to operate members must share the burden of running the club and take on roles and responsibilities as needed by the Club to a level that can reasonably be expected of an individual in order that the Club's objectives may be fulfilled.

Changes to the Constitution of the Club

These rules may be altered, added to or revoked, in accordance with Club Constitution by a majority comprising two-thirds or more of the members present and entitled to vote at any General Meeting of the Club.

Dissolution of the Club

If the Club shall pass in a General Meeting, by a majority comprising two-thirds or more of the members present and entitled to vote, a resolution of intention to dissolve the Club, the Club Committee shall take immediate steps to convert all of the assets of the Club into money.

The proceeds of the conversion shall be used by the Club Committee firstly to discharge all the debts and liabilities of the Club. Any balance shall be passed on to the reconstituted club that replaces the Club or to Devon Hockey Association to form a bursary for junior development.

No person ceasing to be a member shall have any claim on the funds of the Club.

We the undersigned, as elected officers of the Club, confirm the validity and accuracy of this constitution, with no changes
